Vol. XVIII.]

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1817.

[No. 5057.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuous to propose as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the prostate—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obsteinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, carries, and approaching consumptions—to parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Com-motions of the stomach and Lowness of spirits back
Loss of appetite Indigestion
Impurity of blood Melancholy
Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Nervous weakness Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic out-palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that menting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, fetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures presented by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

SELECTED.

ADVICE TO MARRIED MEN.

A SONO.

To make the wife kind, and to keep the house still,
You must be of her mind, let her say what she will;
In all that she does you must give her her way,
For tell her she's wrong, and you'll lead her astray.
Then husbands take care,
Of suspicions beware,
Your wives may be true,
If you fancy they are.
With confidence trust them, and be not such eives
As to make by your jealousy, horns for yourselves.
With confidence, &c.

Abroad all the day if she chooses to roam,
Seem pleased with her absence, she'll sigh to come home;
The man she likes best, and longs to be at,
Be sure to command, and she'll hate him for that.
Then husbands, &c.

What virtue she has, you may safely oppose;
Whatever her follies, you praise her for those;
Approve all her schemes that she lays for a man,
For name but a vice, and she'll sin if she can.
Then husbands, &c.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser.
ON THE COMBUSTION OF THE HUMAN BODY.
Produced by the use of Spiritus Liquors.

The following extract from the memoir of Bianchini is taken from the Annual Register, 1763:—The Countess Cornelia Bandi, of the town of Cesena, aged 62, enjoyed a good state of health. One evening having experienced a sort of drowsiness, she retired to bed, and her maid remained with her till she fell asleep. Next morning when the girl entered to awake her mistress, she found nothing but the remains of her body in the most horrid condition. At the distance of 4 feet from the bed was a heap of ashes, in which could be distinguished the arms and legs untouched. Between the legs lay the head, the brain of which, together with half the posterior part of the cranium, and the whole chin, had been consumed; three fingers were found in a state of a coal—the rest of the body was reduced to ashes, which when touched left on the fingers a fetid moisture. A small lamp which stood on the floor, was covered with ashes, and contained no oil, the tallow of two candles were melted on a table, but the wicks still remained; and the feet of the candlesticks were covered with a certain moisture. The bed was not damaged; the bed clothes and coverlid were raised up and thrown on one side, as when a person gets up. The furniture and tapestry were covered with a moist kind of soot of the color of ashes, which had penetrated into the drawers and dirtied the linen. The soot having been conveyed to a neighboring kitchen, adhered to the walls and the utensils. A piece of bread in the cupboard was covered with it and no dog would touch it. The infectious odour had been communicated to the other apartments. The Annual Register states, that the Countess of Cesena was accustomed to bathe all her body in ramphorated spirits of wine. Bianchini caused the details of this deplorable event to be published at the time when it took place, and no one contradicted them. It was attested also by Scipio Maffei, a learned contemporary of Bianchini, who was far from being credulous, and in the last place this surprising fact was confirmed to the Royal Society of London, by Paul Rolli. The Annual Register mentions also two other facts of the same kind which occurred in England, one at Son'sampton and the other at Coventry.

SWEDEN.

Two of the Swedish literati Dr. Bugellen, and Professor Irah, have been sentenced to imprisonment, one for life, for having drank the health of Gustavus V. as King of Sweden.

[This connected with some other events, seems to indicate, that Sweden is not unanimous in her wishes to have the most fortunate of the old French Marshals (Bernadotte) to rule over her. A few facts may explain who the health drinkers designed as their future sovereign. Gustavus Adolphus was King of Sweden till 1809, when he abdicated his throne. His son Gustavus, who is the nephew of the Empress of Russia—and is now educating under her auspices—is denominated in some of the European Calendars, as Prince Royal of Sweden; and if he should succeed to the throne, would be Gustavus Vth. On the death of the present king of Sweden, Charles XII. (now in his 70th year) it is not improbable, that the young Gustavus will put in his claim to the throne. He is near eighteen years old—of age to reign according to the usages of Europe. On the other hand Bernadotte is acknowledged by Sweden, and most of the other powers of Europe, as Prince Royal of Sweden, and heir apparent to the crown; and having the chief command of the army and being at the head of the Councils of Sweden, will no doubt take measures to have himself proclaimed King; and have the oaths of allegiance to himself taken by all the people. He has already installed his son Oscar, now nearly eighteen years old, as Viceroy of Norway. When the peace of Europe is again disturbed, it probably will be on account of the affairs of Sweden.

HOPE.

Cease every joy to glimmer on my mind,
But leave—oh! leave the light of Hope behind!

Hope may justly be termed the mainspring of our existence—it has a charm for every woe, it adds a zeal to every toil—what were the way-worn pilgrim, unbefriended by this angel of life—this child of heaven—it brings to view his distant home, and conducts him unharmed through danger's darkest hour.—Child of heaven!—thou canst charm the moon-light vigils of the march-worn Soldier;—though scourged by the rough winds, and pierced by the driving storms, exulting he looks through thee to glory's bright career.—Angel of life! at thy call the unfortunate pilot resigns to the raging winds his shattered bark—though sad his heart, his native hills rush upon his thought, and the noise of again treading the loved shore he left behind, keeps him long out o'er the unfathomable deeps.

Primeval Hope! from the barbarous Scythian to the humble Christian thy sway is universal—although thou may'st for a season have ceased to smile, or in some hapless hour have wandered from our sight, yet all—all have enjoyed the blissful vision. Ambition, too, feasts at thy banquet—and he who writes to instruct or please mankind, although rewarded by none, and thanked by few, entertains perhaps, a hope of seeing his name inscribed on the Temple of Fame—the time which otherwise might be employed to profit, is laid out upon experiments, of which he knows not the event—he prosecutes his studies o'er the midnight oil—he ransacks the repositories of his imagination, brings to aid the whole extent of his knowledge and genius—and is resolved to encounter difficulties and perplexities, however formidable—and all for the hope of hearing the voice of praise, or of receiving the applause which his ambition aims at.

Supporting Hope!—barred from thee, what would be the delicious anguish of parting friends—thy creative spirit can enliven the melancholy scene—recount social hours yet to come.

Oh! Hope eternal!—when the quivering lip and the closing eye, betokens the last pang of dissolving nature—then to thy charge is resigned the awful hour—when life's last burning embers are extinct, 'tis thou that triumphs over her woes.

When Mr. Penn, the proprietor of Pennsylvania, and the most considerable man among the Quakers, went to Court to pay his respects to Charles II. that merry monarch, observing the Quaker not to lower his beaver, took off his own hat, and stood uncovered before Penn; who said 'Prithoe, friend Charles, put on thy hat.' 'No,' says the King, 'friendly Penn, it is usual for only one man to stand covered here.'

Lord Mansfield being informed that Miss Sharpe of 25, had married a man of 70, quaintly replied, that she better had taken two thirty fives.

SEIZURE.

The revenue cutter Vigilant, capt. Cahoon, returned here on Saturday last from the Vineyard Sound, having in company the armed brig B. of Bristol, capt. Jones, which she had detained at Tarpaulin Cove. The B. cleared at Bristol on the 3d instant for Porto Rico, with a cargo (as stated in her manifest) of potatoes, onions, apples, &c. armed with one gun, and with a crew of 15 men. When taken possession of by captain Cahoon she had 5 guns mounted, and a crew of 46 men. A list of her armament was taken on Wednesday last, by order of the collector, when there were found on board (exclusive of those mounted) four guns in the hold, 50 casks of powder, a quantity of shot, and every article preparatory to a cruise. The crew of the B. have been discharged, her armament, &c. taken out, and the vessel and armament libelled by the collector of this port, under the act of the last congress, entitled "An act more effectually to preserve the neutral relations of the United States." The privateer Gen. McGregor, which we mentioned some time since as being off Block Island, having changed her commander and received a crew of 100 men, has since proceeded on a cruise.

By the British brig Mary and Sophia, arrived at Charleston.

Kingston, Sept. 11.

Extract of a letter from a merchant in Caracas, to his friend in this city, dated August 29, 1817.

"The Spanish government of Venezuela at this particular crisis finds itself in a state of dissolution. The fall of Guayana on the 17th of July into the hands of the Independents has disconcerted all the plans of the tyrants; for the truly advantageous natural locality of that province, has put into our possession sufficient resources to continue a war in such a manner as to occasion the oppressors of liberty to tremble. As yet we have not received a detailed account of this action, but it is asserted by the emigrants from that place that the occupation of the important point Angostura was preceded by a naval combat, in which admiral Brion defeated the maritime forces of Ybero, taking a Spanish corvette and two brigs of war, and other vessels, in which the Spaniards contemplated to save the effects, which their atrocity enabled them to snatch from the American soil. In consequence of the fall of Guayana the fortifications of San Fernando de Apure were evacuated by the Spanish generals; and by the arrival of a vessel this day from Puerto Cabello it is affirmed that the army under the command of general Paez had occupied Barinas, and was actually on its march towards Caracas, as is most probable, in concert, and to be assisted by the troops despatched from Guayana. Morillo has evacuated Margarita, alias New Sparta, or what is better to say, has been entirely destroyed by the valiant resistance of those immortal heroes, who have left slain upon the field of carnage the formidable force with which he attempted to invade them. Nevertheless, he has burnt, destroyed and devastated every thing which he trod upon in Margarita, and to satiate his vengeance killed with his own hand 14 cowardly wretches, who presented themselves to him; and ordered more than 400 women and children to be thrown into the sea, who had the misfortune to fall into his hands. The remains of his troops, which evacuated the Oriente, have arrived at La Guayra and Puerto Cabello, destined, as it is rumored, to march towards the plains to encounter the Independent army which is approaching from that quarter. Morillo is in La Guayra, and it appears that the captain general of Caracas opposed the atrocious manner in which he had demanded 200,000 dollars in so short a period of time, and obligating at the same moment every individual to enlist without distinction of person, rank, age, or condition, under pain of death and the confiscation of their property for those who would not present themselves.—There is a universal discontent—already there is a shout and a party prevailing against this man; and on this account nothing appears more natural and reasonable than a general insurrection. Three days since there were accounts, and which are again confirmed via the coast, that Morillo had died. Who knows, my friend, what there is in all this? The fact is, that he has now no opinion or party in the country, and he may have been sacrificed by a natural death, or by the hands of an assassin; it may be, then, within a few hours every thing will be discovered.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.

COTTON, RICE, AND FREIGHTS.—By advices from Georgia and South Carolina, it appears that the crop of cotton suffered from early rains in the low country. The rot and worm did some mischief in the high lands. Of about the quantity may be about the same as last year and the quality is better; but there will not be as much of sea island. The crop of rice is good—both cotton and rice will be late at market. A few bales of short staple have appeared in Savannah and Charleston, and sold readily for 50 to 51 cents a pound—it is not expected to be much lower during the season. Cotton and rice are sold for cash. A number of fine ships were in port waiting for freight, but it is not probable cargoes will be obtained before Dec. the last freight was 5 farthings sterling a pound for Liverpool. Cotton is generally in round bales, and the loading tedious, a gang of five men and a screw, may store in short days 20 bales, but if the height between decks is not more than 5 feet 6 perhaps but 15 bales. Only 12 feet can be taken up to Savannah, 15 feet within three miles and larger vessels, six miles 20 feet can pass the bar, which is 18 miles from the city. The bar of Charleston is difficult for vessels drawing more than 25 feet, a full tide and fair wind is necessary to proceed to sea, the bar is ten miles from the city.

ANCIENT INDIAN FORTIFICATIONS.
"Lampedocia, Little Satilla" Neck, (Ga.) Oct. 6, 1816.

"In submitting for publication the underwritten true description of an ancient Indian fortification, I am warranted in the opinion of asserting that it will be read with pleasure by many patrons of your widely circulated paper.

"On the river Dover, a branch of the Great Satilla, in this county, (Camden) there is a remarkable fine bluff on the right bank, on which is situated a very ancient Indian fortification. I have viewed it particularly myself, as well as many of the most respectable gentlemen on this neck and vicinity, all of whom agree that it is one of the most magnificent ancient fortifications that was ever discovered in the United States. It has undoubtedly stood for centuries, from the decayed situation which it is now in—but, from the regularity and strength of the works, it is obvious, that there must have been by far more an ingenious race of Aborigines than the present tribes, or those that were found at the first settlement of this country. Each side of the fortification is about three hundred feet in length, and they are almost parallel with each other, and the walls, which are made of oyster shells and a kind of hard mud, are now more than ten feet high; but, no doubt, when first constructed were considerably higher; the top of which is now very even and broad, sufficiently so as to admit of heavy cannon being placed thereon. The scite on which it is built is remarkably exemplary of Indian ingenuity, being placed beside a beautiful spring rivulet, and notwithstanding which it has a very commanding position. At the north east corner of the fort there is a small round out work, the walls of which are as strong as any part, which admits of a narrow passage into the main fortification; and it also appears that on this bluff was situated one of the largest towns of this ancient people, there being several large mounds of earth thrown up on large masses of the dead, who are laid off in regular strata, one above the other; and there are also large pieces of earthen pots and other implements for domestic use."

The editors of the New York Gazette, having received the following communication, direct from our consul at Bordeaux per the Maria Theresa, hasten to present it to their readers.

Havre, Sept. 1.

SIR—Permit me to communicate to you some customs of commerce that have the force of law in the city of Havre, which have not perhaps come to your knowledge and which I am persuaded are unknown to most of the American captains who frequent this port, as I myself was ignorant of them until now.

It appears that the expression "contents unknown," of which the American captains generally make use in their bills of lading, are not considered in France, at least in Havre, a sufficient guarantee against any deficiency in the weight of goods loaded on their vessels; and although it is well known to all the world that neither the captains nor their officers are called to see the goods weighed, and that they have no other means of ascertaining the weight they are nevertheless bound to make good that which is specified in the bill of lading.

Many cases of this kind have been already decided against captains by the tribunal of commerce, and special care ought, therefore, to be taken to stipulate at least weight and contents unknown, and even then I would not guarantee that they would not be attacked in some other manner.

It appears also, when American captains unload their cargoes under a tent (a thing done but in Havre) and that only for the interest or convenience of the consignee of their goods, though they have no authority under the laws, which has been erected and guarded by persons under the direction of the consignee, the captains are notwithstanding responsible for what the bills of lading call for till they are received; and all robberies committed after the landing under the tent they are chargeable with, till the goods shall have been verified and weighed by an officer of the customs, which sometimes does not take place until a fortnight after the landing. It frequently happens that these same captains have gone from Havre before the weighing and examination of the cargo is commenced, but they are no less liable, though at sea, or all the subtraction and deficiency that may have taken place under the said tent.

These, sir, are abuses that would appear incredible, if they were not corroborated by various decisions of the tribunal of commerce of this city, according to which, a captain who has put his cargo on shore with the utmost good faith not knowing the custom, which they take good care not to apprise him of, may some day find himself ruined, without having the least suspicion of having run any risk.

I have thought these facts, sir, of sufficient importance to be laid before you, and I leave you the care of giving them the publicity you may judge proper.

I have the honor to be, with perfect consideration, your very humble and obedient servant.

COMMERCIALLY IMPORTANT.

Extract of a letter from J. M. Forbes, esq. consul general at Copenhagen, to his correspondents in Boston, dated Copenhagen, Sept. 2d.

"I wrote you last under the 13th July, with a state of this market, and have now the pleasure to present you the prices of this day. During the season, now drawing to a close, those adventures which have been chiefly composed of sugar and coffee or which have been suitably assorted, have found here a fair price profit, and every merchant of reflection has given up the illusion of those great gains, which in other times were accompanied with corresponding risks. I have before hinted at the obvious advantages of this position, for the distribution of foreign cargoes among the different ports of this Baltic; the profits of this distribution, now going into the hands of speculators here, may easily be preserved to the American ship holder, if our countrymen would adopt the practice of coming here for orders, which may be effected without any loss of time; for if the master or supercargo will proceed to this city by land, from Eiseneur, where he must stop to pay his Sound dues, he may rejoin his vessel off this place, without coming to anchor. I have taken measures to have regular advices of the state of the Baltic markets every week, during the spring and summer; and as my arrangements promise me some advantage in case of a destination under my direction as of a sale here, my friends may depend on a free communication of Baltic correspondence, and my unbiased advice, should they think proper to consult me."

From the Boston Evening Intelligencer, October 18.

It has so long been customary in this country, to look to Europe for intelligence, that every vessel from thence is expected to afford news, and every vessel has of late invariably disappointed our expectations. Accounts are received from England to the 12th Sept., and all the information we have obtained relates to a successful harvest, and revival of manufacture, and the permanence of the new system of government established by the congress of Vienna. London editors are attentively observing South America, and the apparent connection of that country with the United States; they say the North Americans are arming the navy, in the time of profound peace, which indicates an interference with the affairs of Spain and her colonies; and they seem to indicate that such conduct on our side will draw upon us the castigation of the continental powers of Europe combined with England. These speculations are idle, and worse than useless, because they are founded upon an erroneous assumption. The American navy is laid up in ordinary—a small fleet is indeed afloat in the Mediterranean, to watch the Barbary states and protect American commerce from their depredations; and it is equally necessary to send United States vessels into the Gulf of Mexico, and in other dangerous seas, to guard our vessels from the vexatious interruptions and robberies of pirates, under the guise of the Patriot flag.

The following paragraph is from the London Literary Repository, of August.

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS.—By information lately received from a gentleman residing in Holland, it appears that the American minister in that country has succeeded in procuring an ordinance regulating trade to the island of Java, by which it is provided that foreign vessels coming from that island are exempted from the import duties upon entering the ports of Holland and Belgium, upon producing evidence of their having paid the export duties at Batavia. Upon the same authority, we have the pleasure to state, since the 1st of Jan. no other or higher import duties are imposed upon American vessels, in the Dutch ports, than their own vessels.

from the New York Mercantile Advertiser.
Liverpool, Sept. 16.

Our cotton market for a considerable time has been unusually animated, and aggressive, and on the whole material advance has taken place in the price, although lately this advance has been slow and of small extent. The total import for the last two months is about 55,000 bags; while in the same period the sales computed at 98,000, of which about 20,000 have been taken out of the market by the consumers. The market is very steady at present, with a good demand. Prices for uplands 19 3/4 to 22 1/2; Orleans 22 1-2; sea islands 2s 3d 5.

For U. S. pot ashes there has been for some time past a fair demand for shipment to Ireland; the prices have varied a little. Pearls have been scarce for some time. Canada ashes being plenty and cheaper, have been taken in preference for home use.

Our stock of tobacco is now reduced to about 2200 hhd's Virginia, and 1300 hhd's of all other descriptions, but the prices have been gradually declining. Very fine leaf is scarce and wanted for Ireland; and there is no good or fine Maryland in the market.

Quebec bark has been in brisk request during the last fortnight, chiefly on speculation, & the prices advanced 1s 2d per cwt; the demand has however subsided—the quantity held by speculators is considerable, and if much comes forward, it is doubtful if the present prices can be supported. Flaxseed in good demand for crushing; American is scarce here, and there will be but little left over in Ireland. Slaves meet a ready sale.

Timber of almost every description has advanced materially: Georgia pitch is now worth 2s 7d a 2s 6d per foot.

For the last two weeks we have had very fine weather and much of the grain in the south is secured; though in this neighborhood it is yet principally in the field. The great demand we had previous to the harvest for flour, has left but little of good quality in the market, but the demand has become very limited.

To-day a considerable quantity was offered at auction, but most of it withdrawn. Good Alexandria brought 45s a 45s 6d; and Philadelphia 46s 6d a 47s were asked, but could not be obtained. Sour may be quoted at 34s a 36s—Rye flour nominal at 28s a 30s. A. wheat is not worth more than 11s a 12s per 70lbs. Having now made our survey of the crops of wheat, we may state that we have not had one since 1813 so free from blight or mildew, so that the quality of the new crop will appear unusually good, its condition however will have been in many cases impaired by premature housing. It was generally thin on the ground and the heads rather small, so that in quantity it will fall materially short of an average crop, and consequently inadequate to our consumption for 12 months. The probabilities of the ports containing open after next quarter day, are greatly against it. And even if our wants should be large this year, we may calculate on being supplied without any necessity for high prices.

New York, Oct. 25.

By the Aurora, capt. Baker, we have received Dublin papers of the 16th ult.

These papers state, that the sickness of the season continued from day to day alternately to excite their hopes and apprehensions. Much of the corn crops had been already removed from the stubble ground about Ennis, and the standing crops, which were approaching fast to a state of maturity, every where presented an appearance the most cheering and abundant. While from all quarters, they had the satisfaction to learn, that the potatoe ridges promise an average.

In the Dublin market, American flour sold freely at 60s.

The malignant fever had nearly ceased in the neighborhood of Ennis. The ravages of the fever had been peculiarly severe in the north of Ireland, particularly in Londonderry.

To-day a considerable quantity was offered at auction, but most of it withdrawn. Good Alexandria brought 45s a 45s 6d; and Philadelphia 40s 6d a 47s were asked, but could not be obtained. Sour may be quoted at 34s a 36s—Rye flour nominal at 28s a 30s. A. wheat is not worth more than 11s a 12s per 70lbs.

Having now made our survey of the crops of wheat, we may state that we have not had one since 1813 so free from blight or mildew, so that the quality of the new crop will appear unusually good; its condition however will have been in many cases impaired by premature housing. It was generally thin on the ground and the heads rather small, so that in quantity it will fall materially short of an average crop, and consequently inadequate to our consumption for 12 months. The probabilities of the ports containing open after next quarter day, are greatly against it. And even if our wants should be large this year, we may calculate on being supplied without any necessity for high prices.

New York, Oct. 25.

By the Aurora, capt. Baker, we have received Dublin papers of the 16th ult. These papers state, that the sickness of the season continued from day to day alternately to excite their hopes and apprehensions. Much of the corn crops had been already removed from the stubble ground about Ennis, and the standing crops, which were approaching fast to a state of maturity, every where presented an appearance the most cheering and abundant. While from all quarters, they had the satisfaction to learn, that the potato ridges promise an over-flow.

In the Dublin market, American flour sold freely at 60s.

The malignant fever had nearly ceased in the neighborhood of Ennis. The ravages of the fever had been peculiarly severe in the north of Ireland, particularly in Londonderry.

IN COUNCIL, OCTOBER 25, 1817.
The taxes due from Mary Taylor were notified.
The tax on 1 tavern license improperly charged to William Garner was remitted.

... provided the expense does not exceed fifty dollars.

"A bill to establish the manner of regulating the town clock and ringing the alarm bell" was read a first time and laid on the table.

Ordered, That the superintendent of police do cause the old warehouse on the north side of the corporation wharf, formerly Conway's, to be repaired, and change the expense to the general fund, provided the same does not exceed $5 dollars.

Ordered, That the mayor be and he is hereby authorized to cancel the auctioneers' license given to John Jackson & Co. and issue another in the name of John Jackson & George A. Babb, upon their complying with the conditions of the law.

"The act to regulate the inspection of shingles and plastering lath" was read a first time and laid on the table.

Ordered, That the superintendent of police be authorized to rent the vacant ground between Union-street and Potomac Strand until the expiration of Thomas Preston's lease.

Land for Sale.

IF early application is made, I will dispose of 400 acres of the CEDAR GROVE tract of land. There is surplus timber and fire wood enough on the part I purpose selling to pay, with judicious management, more than half the purchase money, at the price I ask. The situation is healthy, and the land fertile. Contiguity to market is also among its advantages; it being within less than a mile of Mr. Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price may be had for grain. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, residing at Cedar Grove, ten miles below Alexandria, and one below Janney's mill.

A valuable Farm for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER will sell, on reasonable terms, a valuable and productive farm of 640 acres, or thereabouts—being part of the land of the late Richard Brent, lying on Kettle Run in the county of Prince William, in the state of Virginia—20 miles from the Occoquan Mills—35 miles from Alexandria, and about the same distance from Georgetown and the City of Washington. This farm lies in the centre of an excellent neighborhood—is handsomely situated—abundantly watered, and has upon it an ample proportion of wood. The soil is naturally strong, and a considerable portion of it has for some years past, been cultivated according to the most approved rules of modern husbandry. Possession will be given on the first day of January next. The terms upon which this property will be sold, will be made known upon application to George L. Brent, of Stafford County, Va. or to the subscriber living in Alexandria.

Rich Kenhawa Lands for Sale or Barter.

I WILL sell or exchange, for property in this district or its vicinity, a valuable tract of land in Mason county, Virginia, situate on the Great Kenhawa River, at the mouth of Eighteen Mile Creek, distant from Point Pleasant about eighteen miles. This tract bounds upon the river, and contains by patent one thousand and fifty acres; a large proportion of which is rich bottom. The title is old, and indisputable, having been located and surveyed by Gen. Washington before the Revolution. What may be considered as adding much to its value is the passage of the western road through it. As a reference to Mr. Madison's map of Virginia, the situation of the land may be designated. Apply to Colonel Francis Peyton, or

ANN-ELIZA PEYTON.

October 8

For Sale.

THE Tract of Land whereon I reside, containing 709 acres, bounding on the Little River Turnpike Road, and adjoining the town of Fairfax Court house, about 10 miles from Alexandria and 14 miles from Georgetown and Washington city. It lies handsomely and is extremely well watered; about three hundred acres in wood. This tract might be divided into three or four lots with great convenience, as to cleared land, wood and water.

Also,

One other Tract of Land adjoining, containing 606 acres, nearly half in woods—lies well and is well watered—with a great proportion of good meadow land. This tract might conveniently be divided into three or four lots.

Also,

One other Tract of Land, containing 432 acres, adjacent to the first mentioned—lies well and well watered—tolerable improvements, with a sufficiency of wood and timber. This tract might be divided into two suitable lots.

A more minute description is thought unnecessary, as no person would purchase without viewing the lands, which can be shown at any time.

These tracts will be sold as they are, or divided into lots to suit purchasers, and will be sold a bargain, if immediate application be made. Possession of the first and last mentioned tracts can be had at any time, the other the first day of January next. The terms will be a small proportion in cash; for the balance any reasonable credit, on being well secured, and interest paid annually.

WILL purchase MARYLAND TOBACCO. October 25

Sully for Sale.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those, now untillable, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year, if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax. FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE.

sept. 19

For Sale.

A TRACT of land, lying on the North Fork of Quantico Creek, and only two miles from the town of Dumfries, (known by the name of Clifton) containing about 250 acres. About two thirds of this tract is in wood—a part of the cleared land well enclosed. There is on this tract a good dwelling house, stables, &c.; and convenient to the dwelling house a grist mill, containing two pair of stones—one of burr, new, five feet diameter; the other Cologne. The mill is lately built. Every part of the gear new, and completely fitted for merchant work. The mill better secured from floods than any I am acquainted with, having but 3 feet of dam, with a short race, to admit of fall for a twenty-four foot overshot water wheel. In fact, the land is of good quality; the situation handsome and healthy; the stream a good one; and the mill new, spacious, and well finished, and lying in the most direct road for a great part of the produce that comes to Dumfries to pass it. Possession can be had immediately, and the terms known by application to me, at Dumfries.

John Jackson & Co.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disordered breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILL.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than the opinions of pompous eulogists founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason to trust that from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
